

Certificate of Accreditation

This is to Certify That

jahan university has been officially accredited as a recognized university by

IAUC

(International Association for University Association)

for successfully completing the verification process and meeting all the required standards for institutional recognition. This accreditation affirms the university's commitment to educational excellence, integrity, and global compliance.

Issued on September 28, 2025

Chief Executive Officer

Director of Accreditation